Devansoy News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Devansoy is Growing to Better Serve Our Valued Customers:
Appointment of Kate Leavitt as Vice President of Sales & Marketing

Rock City, IL, Thursday, September 01, 2016—Devansoy is pleased to announce the addition of Kate Leavitt to our company's leadership team. Ms. Leavitt has joined Devansoy as Vice President of Sales and Marketing and will build on Devansoy's strong legacy of providing world-class service in the supply of premium quality organic and non-gmo soy and other plant-based products.

Kate has over 20 years in the food and agricultural industry. Her experience includes roles in sourcing, sales and marketing - both domestic and international, supply chain management, processing, and logistics, serving in organizations including SunOpta, Northhand Organic Foods and the Minnesota Trade Office. Fueled by a passion for providing healthy, alternative food products Kate thrives on delivering excellence— a natural fit for Devansoy. Her dedication to the natural and organic food industry, has provided Kate with the opportunity to serve on key industry boards including the Soyfoods Association of North America and the Minnesota AgriGrowth Council.

Kate's experience and energy will complement Devansoy's ongoing efforts to exceed the needs and expectations of our customers. Over the coming months Kate will look forward to meeting Devansoy's customers and working closely with them. For your records, her contact information is:
